

Purpose

Developing recommendations for improving construction field operations.

Develop recommendations for specific construction related problems.

Work with other UDOT divisions to investigate mutual problems and aid in developing probable solutions.

Recommend means to improve efficiency and control construction engineering inspection and testing costs.

Train Project and Field engineers.

Policy

The Construction Enhancement Team is composed of the Engineer for Construction as chairman with members being the Deputy Construction Engineers, Region Construction Engineers, Civil Rights Coordinator, Construction Project Engineers, Contracts Estimates and Agreements Manager, the Construction Operations Specialist. Field Engineers may be invited. They will meet four times during the year with one meeting held during the annual Engineers Conference. Field Engineers will be invited to attend the meeting held with the annual Engineers Conference.